

May 24 - 26, Exhibition Centre Immigrants, Sao Paulo, Brazil

EXPOSEC is a an international fair of electronic security, surveillance and enterprise assets. The event is organized by Cipa LTDA and draws administrators, civil guard, engineers and security professionals from South America and around the world. The event usually showcases new and rising technology that provides electronic identification, communications and more. This is the 14th annual event. Exhibits typically include Armas Weapons, Central tracking, Access Control, Fire Detection, Lock technology, acces control, safety of dignitaries, electronic security, cyber security and residential security and identification.